- Petitions must be filed by September 1st and shall be approved or disapproved by October 31st. If approved, the assessment shall be effective on July 1st of the following tax year. The owner or party responsible for paying the real property tax may appeal any rejection of the report, cancellation of the dedication, or imposition of a rollback tax and penalty in the same manner as an appeal from an assessment.
- An owner of the land may petition for dedication, or with the written authorization of the owner, a lessee, permittee or licensee may petition for dedication of the owner's land.
- A copy of a valid State of Hawaii general excise tax license must be submitted with the petition to dedicate by the party conducting the agricultural use activities.
- The approval of the petition to dedicate shall constitute a forfeiture to change the use of the land to a use other than agriculture for a minimum period of 1 year, 5 years, or 10 years, as the case may be.
- Following the approval of the dedication, an annual report (form BFS-RP-P-41A) shall be submitted no later than September 1st following each year of the dedication.
- Submit petition for dedication and supporting documentation to:
